

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

ATTACHMENT

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1A

1. MGB Officers Stationed in Anklam:

Capt. Daveshov, on duty in Anklam since April 1946, ca 36 and 1.80 m; has many steel teeth, his policy is to arrest as many people as possible and to search for those who are reported to possess weapons.

Sr. Lt. Karlov, in Anklam since November 1946, ca 28 and 1.76 m; slightly lame in his right leg; speaks good German and is always friendly and polite, even to prisoners.

2. MGB Officers Redeployed from Anklam:

Maj. Dmitrukov, ca 34 and 1.75m; highest ranking MGB officer in Anklam from 1945 to June 1947; transferred in 1947 either to Schwerin or to Greifswald.

Sr. Lt. Sasna Ladevsky, ca 30 and 1.75 m; had many gold teeth; ceased after German girls: friend of Maj. Dmitrukov; spoke good German; remained in Anklam from June 1945 to March 1947.

Capt. Schnalder, ca 40 and 1.70 m; married to Shura S who spoke good German and acted as her husband's interpreter; very brutal with the prisoners and uncouth in dealing with all other Germans, including his informants: stationed in Anklam from 1946 to 1947.

Capt. Snterlinsky, born 15 May 1917 in Stalingrad, ca 1.68m; from November 1945 to September 1946 stationed in Spantekow b. Anklam; promoted from Sr. Lt. to Capt. in November 1946, stationed in Anklam from Sept. 1946 to December 1946 and then transferred to some town in vicinity of Greifswald. His wife Lydia was also an MGB officer and did office work. His 17 yr. old interpreter Misha spoke perfect German, attended church every Sunday and often mixed with Germans in public dancehalls.

Sr. Lt. Yakobi, ca 40 and 1.70 m; Jewish, always polite and sometimes even kind; often visited German families and was invited there for meals: spoke very little German; stationed in Anklam from 1946 to June 1947 and was then transferred to Greifswald. His 25 yr. old interpreter Galina spoke perfect German and looked like a German.

Lt. Smyslovsky, ca 27 and 1.65 m; had two gold teeth in front; was stationed in Anklam from 1947 to 1949; was always called by his fellow officer derisively Ivan; spoke not a word of German.

His interpreter Natasha's German was also very limited. Smyslovsky and Natasha were transferred in 1949 to Ueckermuende, Mecklenburg.

3. Officers of the Anklam Komendatura who Collaborated Closely with the Anklam MGB:

Sr. Lt. Drombosky, in charge of the agricultural section

Lt. Goldberg, interpreter to Maj. Spiridonov

Capt. Konev, in charge of education and party politics

Capt. Korostilin, in charge of interzonal passes

Capt. Sadovsky, in charge of the economic section

Sr. Lt. Sardosky, political office

Maj. Spiridonov, in charge of political section

Maj. Yezhov, Deputy Commandant

4. Officers of the Anklam Komendatura who were not known to Collaborate with the Anklam MGB:

Maj. Pashenkov, once deputy commandant, sent to Russia for too great friendship with German population.

Sr. Lt. Yuk, assistant to Sr. Lt. Drombosky, lives quietly with his wife and son and is aloof toward his fellow officers.

SECRET/CONTROL

CONFIDENTIAL